

Privacy and Online Data Security Policy

Six Rivers will not sell, lease, trade or share any donor personal information including contact information, email address or other information provided to Six Rivers. Six Rivers uses various vendors to provide internet access and functionality. Six Rivers requires these entities to comply with their own security and privacy statements. However, Six Rivers assumes no responsibility for the operations of these vendors.

Information that is gathered from site visitors:

1. As with other websites, log files with details such as site visitor's IP address, browser type, referring page and time of visit are collected and stored on the web server.
2. Cookies may be used to remember visitor preferences when interacting with the website.
3. Where registration is required, the visitor's email and a username will be stored on the server.

How the information is used

1. Information collected and stored is used to assist with website maintenance, troubleshooting, and operation and to enhance the visitor's experience on the website.
2. E-mail may be sent to inform you of news, services or offers by us or our affiliates.

Visitor options

1. You may unsubscribe from email communications by following the instructions which are included in the e-mail that you receive.
2. You may block cookies via your browser settings but this may prevent certain features of the website from functioning for you.

Credit card information Credit and debit card contributions and purchases are processed securely through our website using a secure credit card processing vendor. If you have questions or concerns please contact Six Rivers at info@sixriversrlc.org